The list should specify in which phase the piece will be sung (Eliminatory Round, Semi-finals, Finals). Only one among the six pieces may be chosen by each participant from the operetta repertoire. Chamber arias, sacred arias, salon music and romances will not be allowed. Arias are to be sung by heart. While assessing each performance, the Jury will assign a higher score if the piece is sung in compliance with the original version (abiding by tonality and language), and integrally (with recitative, da capo and cabaletta), and according to lessons presented in critical editions. If two singers obtain the same score, the one who more closely abides by the prescriptions specified above will be preferred.

The Application Form should be thoroughly completed with all the information requested. For each musical piece it will be necessary to clearly specify: Author's first and last name, complete title of the Opera, and precise incipit of the Aria (approximate descriptions will not be accepted). In the event of wrong or lacking information in the Application Form, the Organizing Committee will not contact the Applicant to correct/add wrong/missing information. Hence, Applicants will be responsible to verify if their application and program has been accepted.

If a singer wishes to change the musical pieces specified in the application form, communication should be given by e-mail no later than May 13, 2022. Failure to inform the Organizing Committee before such deadline will imply that the applicant will have to sing the pieces initially specified in the Application Form.

Should an application be sent after the deadline, the Organizing Committee is entitled to freely decide whether to admit it or not.

e) Automatic qualifiers to the semi-finals: candidates having already ranked in one of the first three positions in any other International Singing Contest can be admitted directly to the semi-final phase. In this case, the list of pieces to be submitted must indicate four pieces (by two Italian composers at least). All singers having the aforementioned requirements who decide to directly access the semi-final phase, must enclose a copy of the certificate showing that the position achieved in the other international contest is one of the first three (the term "International" is to be clearly specified in the certificate). The copy of the certificate submitted is to be signed by the participant him/herself as proof of authenticity.

f) The finalists of the selections held abroad and in Italy of the 2022 edition of the "Città di Alcamo" Contest will directly be admitted to the semi-final phase. The list of pieces to be submitted must indicate four pieces by no less than two different Italian composers.

Performances will be open to the public. Pianists will be available to accompany singers. However, participants may choose to perform with their own pianist, provided that all expenses for such personal pianist are paid by the participant. In the event that a singer will not have the time to rehearse with a pianist or if organizational reasons prevent rehearsals between singer and pianist, such singer will be allowed to have a short meeting with pianist immediately before his/her impromptu performance.

4 – Participants who fail to be present at the roll-call will be excluded from the Contest, unless they provide a justified reason for their absence.

On the occasion of their first performance, all singers shall show a valid Identity Document to the Secretary Office and pay a € 100.00 administrative fee.

5 - Participants will be judged in compliance with the regulations approved for the Jury by the Board of Directors of the organizing body, i.e. the Amici della Musica Association of Alcamo. In all the phases of the Contest, the Jury will be entitled to: i) request a singer to perform only a part of a piece or his/her program, or ii) ask questions to the singers in order to better understand their artistic profiles; iii) ask the singer to perform again.

6 - The first prize is indivisible. The Technical Jury may decide not to award a prize if no candidate is considered to be of a proper artistic level. In addition, the Jury may decide to assign ex-aequo prizes, provided that the total sum awarded remains the same. The Jury has the right to request a singer to perform only a part of an aria or his/her program, or that he/she performs again, and can ask questions to better understand his/her artistic profile.

After the conclusion of the final phase, the Jury will take the minutes regarding its decisions. Then the Jury will post the names of the winners, prize awardees and grant awardees, without disclosing the order in which the winners have ranked. The place-list will be announced during the Gala Concert.

All Jury's decisions are to be considered undisputable and irrevocable. By participating in the contest, singers acknowledge to accept all Jury's decisions.

7 - The winners of the Contest shall participate in the Gala Concert that will be held at the Cielo d'Alcamo Theatre on Sunday, May 29, 2022. Failure to participate in the Gala Concert will imply loss of prize.

Grant Awardees and those receiving a Special Prize will not be considered winners; therefore they may be allowed to sing for the Gala Concert only if the Technical Jury so decides.

The program of the Concert will be established as per the Technical Jury's unquestionable choice, and will specify the pieces to be sung by the winners (or by prize and grant awardees, should any of them perform). Each singer will be accompanied by a pianist.

8 - Participants are not entitled by any means to request compensation for performing on the final evening, or in the event that their performance is broadcasted on radio or television. The Gala Concert will be filmed, and the video can be purchased by the winners, prize and grant awardees for personal use. Winners will receive a Diploma of Honour. All the other participants will receive a Participation Certificate.

9 - The Organizing Committee will be headed by the Association's Interim President.

The Committee has the right to cancel the contest in case of events beyond its control (Pandemic, war...). All parties concerned will be timely informed of all changes, if any.

10 - Participation in the contest involves unconditional acceptance of these regulations. Should any complaint arise, only the Italian text will be considered valid. Place of jurisdiction: Court of Trapani.

For all matters not included in these regulations, the decision will be made by the Organizing Committee.

11 - In compliance with Legislative Decree No. 196 of June 30, 2003, all the data obtained will be processed only for the purposes related to this contest and according to the applicable laws.
